

Crimea Policy Dialogue Project

Publications

Crimea Policy Dialogue 2010

The project has published a volume collecting the key research and expert analysis performed under its aegis in 2010. This volume is available for downloading chapter by chapter below:

1. Comments on the Draft Law "Concerning Languages in Ukraine" – Prof. Adile Emirova, Simferopol
2. Comments on the Draft Law "Concerning Languages in Ukraine" – Dr. Valentin Yakushik, Kyiv
3. Comments on the Draft Law "Concerning Languages in Ukraine" – Dr. Natalya Belitser, Kyiv
4. The Cultural and Linguistic Safeguards of the Åland Minority Protection Regime – Heidi Öst, Åland Islands, Finland
5. Prospects of Trilingual Education in Crimea – Dr. Natalia Mirimanova, Brussels and Anna Lukinova, Simferopol
6. The Implementation of Multilingual Education – The Case of Latvia – Ligita Grigule, Riga
7. Language Policy in Finland – Dr. Kjell Herberts, Vaasa / Vasa, Finland
8. Implementation of Language Policy in Education – information from the Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine
9. Psychological Images of Language and Culture-related Threats in the Perception of Crimean City Dwellers – Dr. Iryna Brunova-Kalisetska and Dr. Olga Dukhnych, Simferopol
10. Prospects of Trilingualism in Crimean Mass Media – Natalya Kouts and Dr. Elmira Muratova, Simferopol

Crimea Policy Dialogue – 2011. Land Conflicts. Research Collection

The volume collects the key research and expert analysis focused on land policy performed under its aegis in 2011.

1. The Political and Social Meaning of Land Squatting for the Crimean Societ Researcher Team: Dr. Elmira Muratova (Simferopol), Natalya Kuts (Simferopol), Alim Aliev (Simferopol / Lviv) and Natalya Maretska (Simferopol)
2. Mechanisms for Resolving Land Disputes Related to Mass Land Squatting Sites
Researcher Team: Oleksandr Bogomolov (Kyiv), Serhiy Danylov (Kyiv)
3. Societal Notions about Mechanisms for Resolving Land Disputes
Researcher Team: Dr. Iryna Brunova-Kalisetska (Simferopol) and Serhiy Danylov (Kyiv)

Printed copies in English, Russian and Ukrainian can be requested to be mailed by sending an email to denism@patrir.ro; lrma.pidtepa@patrir.ro.